

Dissertation

MSc in Precision Scientific Instrumentation

Important Timeline:

Description		Date
Announcement for call for project proposal.		29 Dec 2025 (Mon)
Deadline for supervisor to submit projects proposal.		05 Jan 2026 (Mon)
Deadline for Programme Director to approve the dissertation project proposal.		12 Jan 2026 (Mon)
Student to view approved project listing and approach the supervisor.		15 Jan 2026 – 21 Jan 2026
Supervisor to allocate the project to the student		16 Jan 2026 – 23 Jan 2026
Minimum allowable period to submit fully completed dissertation for examination.	Full-time student:	03 Aug 2026 (Mon)
	Part-time student:	01 Feb 2027 (Mon)

Terms and Conditions:

1. Faculty Project Limits:

Each faculty member may propose multiple dissertation projects per Academic Year, ensuring each project has a unique title (Please ensure that proposed dissertation titles are professionally crafted, as they will appear on students' academic transcripts).

[NOTE: Faculty taking more than 3 students will need to seek approval from the Programme Director to ensure supervision quality.]

2. Project Type:

We encourage topics that emphasize practical skill development in instrumentation, characterization, measurements, and research methodologies. Given the advanced nature of dissertations, they should include both learning components and address relevant research questions.

Note: Terms and Conditions subjected to changes prior to notice

3. Student Discussion and Allocation:

Students will approach supervisor for further discussion.

Students must obtain supervisor's provisional approval via email before registering their chosen topic. Please attach a copy of the email (e.g. PDF format, image format) in the Dissertation Registration Form for submission.

4. Project Uniqueness: All allocated projects must be unique.

5. Project Duration:

Students must dedicate at least 6 months (for full-time students) or 1 year (for part-time students) to their projects, working closely with their supervisors on both the projects and dissertations.

Maximum duration for Full-time student: up to maximum candidature (~1.5 years) - latest dissertation submission to be 4 months before maximum candidature

Maximum duration for Part-time student: maximum 3 years – latest dissertation submission to be 4 months before the 3 years due

(extension beyond minimum allowable period is subjected to approval by supervisor)

6. Dissertation Submission Deadline:

If students cannot submit their fully completed dissertation for examination by the minimum allowable period as indicated in the above Important Timeline, they must consult their supervisors to extend the dissertation period.